

Young musician and instrumental music composer, with influences from classical and electronic, Mihail Doman launched Arhythmology last year - a story of rebirth and new beginnings. The album, which was conceived as a soundtrack without a movie, represents in a way his vision of the human condition.

Mihail Doman In Concert brings Arhythmology closer to listeners, with a minimalist and intimate instrumentation, reduced to its essential parts, and inspired by Olafur Arnalds and Ludovico Einaudi.

The concerts will be piano concerts, and they will also include songs from the next album - Neptune, project which is still in the works.

You will also hear the songs which are not part of any compilation, songs which mark states and moments in time, being conceived as musical snapshots.

To find out more, you can visit Mihail's page:
mihaildoman.com.

Tanar muzician si compozitor de muzica instrumentala cu influente clasice si electronice, Mihail Doman a lansat anul trecut Arhythmology - o poveste despre renastere si noi inceputuri. Albumul a fost gandit ca o coloana sonora fara film, si reprezinta intr-un anumit fel viziunea sa asupra conditiei umane.

Mihail Doman In Concert aduce Arhythmology mai aproape de ascultatori, cu o instrumentatie redusa la esential, minimalista si intima, inspirata de Olafur Arnalds si Ludovico Einaudi.

Concertele vor fi sustinute la pian si vor cuprinde si piese de pe urmatorul album - Neptune, proiect care sa afla inca in lucru.

Vor fi de asemenea interpretate piesele care nu sunt incluse intr-o compilatie, piese care marcheaza stari si momente in timp, fiind concepute ca niste snapshot-uri muzicale.

Pentru a afla mai multe, vizitati pagina lui Mihail:
mihaildoman.com.